

Peopleatwork-hellas is the companies' effective partner in recruiting and employees' development, the human resources boutique-agency which can focus effectively and professionally on the needs of both companies and candidates.

Our client is a productive and commercial company in the carton sector, looking for a dynamic and well promising candidate to fill the position, as presented below, in its IT dpt, based in Sindos Industrial Area.

SOFTWARE DEVELOPER

(code SD-24)

Brief description:

Manage, maintain, troubleshoot, support, develop and perform all tasks related to Information Systems.

Job Requirements:

- BS in Computer science or Computer engineering
- Analytical Skills
- 1 to 3 years of experience in development
- Knowledge and experience in software and full stack development using Microsoft visual studio (C#, VB.net, python, java script, ...)
- Knowledge and experience in SQL database server administration, management, maintenance, configuration, optimization, development ...
- Young and dynamic
- Finished the military services
- Fluent in English (writing and speaking)
- Greek citizen

Duties:

- Plan, organize, control, & evaluate operations IS & Electronic Data Processing
- Manage, monitor & audit information system with respect to the functional use & data quality
- Identify business & users' needs
- Develop reports & database queries/alerts
- Develop software packages and modules
- Develop integration modules among multiple software packages and solution
- Work on software development tasks
- Optimize database queries & reporting
- Manage, maintain, configures, monitor SQL databases
- Lead data management and governance
- Lead information systems projects implementation along with training & support
- Recommend ideas & solutions in order to improve business functions
- First layer of support with respect to usage, reporting, business/technical functions, data management, ...
- Coach & support users
- Execute the maintenance, backup & cleaning of databases & system reports

- Administer information systems security, privileges, rights, permissions, master tables & data

All candidates meeting the position requirements are asked to submit their cv, stating the position code in careers@peopleatwork-hellas.gr

We inform all candidates that during the procedure of cv submission and candidates' evaluation, they will be asked to provide their consent for their personal data to be processed and forwarded to the company in question.

All candidates receive an answer and are treated with confidentiality and professionalism.